

Anglers' Club Entertains at Successful Dance on the Local Fishing Pier

A Marine Fishermen's Dance and Frolic was given Saturday night on the Anglers' Pier by the Entertainment committee and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Anglers' Club of Absecon Island. Music, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed by more than 100 guests.

One of the features of the evening was a specialty dance given by Mr. and Mrs. James Bechtold and Lillian Greenwood. A large cake, decorated in designs of fish and sea food, traveling bags, a fine fishing rod, and many other awards were distributed to lucky winners throughout the night.

Henry Asam won the "booby" prize, which he will be able to put to good advantage as bluefish bait.

Attending the affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Peter Glick, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Roberts, Joseph Roberts, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. N. Edwin Lindell, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Buch, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lightfoot, Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon B. Taylor, C. N. Irvin, Harry Gardiner, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. ## Pier Fishing Good

Fishing is still good at the Anglers' Pier despite the poor weather, with a good run of weak-fish Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Harry Montgomery, of Poughkeepsie and Margate, landed 22 on his first trip to the Pier this season, on Thursday.

Anglers' Pier Fishermen Catch Large Numbers

Fred Weigman was high man last week with a catch of 67 fish from the pier-head of the Anglers' Club of Absecon Island, Essex Ave. and the Boardwalk. Fred's closest competitor, E. Einwechter, took 61, while H. Asam, Sr., took third place with 59.

Ness Irvine landed a nice king Saturday and thought he would have him for Sunday breakfast. After taking great pains to clean it he tossed the fish overboard and saved the head. (Ness says it's the first time he ever did it.)

Fishermen's Dance Sat. by Popular Demand at Anglers Club House

So successful was the Fishermen's Luncheon and Dance a few weeks ago that many requests were heard for another affair of the same type.

The committee in charge have spared no effort to make this Saturday evening's event even more interesting than the last.

Subscription will be $1.00 and includes refreshments. If you care to spend an evening that's different and enjoyable, be on hand Saturday night. Music will be furnished by a popular orchestra.
