to Everyone; Seaside Resort

Catch of Fish This Season

Just another word about the Fourth Fishermen's Dance of the Anglers Club of Absecon Island, to be held on Saturday night, Aug. 12. The pierhead of the Club has been restrung with numerous lights for the occasion and with the full moon shining from above will be a wonderful place to dance, eat and be merry.

The Club has invited the Mayors of the seaside resorts to be their guests at that time, and following the Ocean City Cup Championship Casting Tournament, held on the afternoon of the same day, bids fair to a great event in the social life of Margate.

Then on Sunday, Aug. 13, the Club will have their individual casting tournament, for members only.

A correction is herewith made on last week's catch. Mr. Bernard Levy was credited with only catching one fish, but he dragged in two, the last one with the help of Mr. Edward Fitzgerald.

The past week saw the largest catch of the season from the Club's Pier, over 1800 being caught.

Among the lucky Izaak Walton of the week were Lew Christiansen, with four striped bass, weighing 27

Frank Jacobs, better known as "Channel Bass Jake," has given up his original fad and has originated the art of crab trapping on the famous second bridge.

On Friday last "Kate" Roberts and his family, Harry Gardner, Harry Garvin, Frankie Jacobs and family went crabbing at Risley's Channel on the Northfield Pike. Got a bushel of crabs and a few headaches.

Ed. Fitzgerald tagged along with the crabbing party and created perspiration in chasing the elusive mussel along the sod banks.

Cast of the Week

Croakers were in evidence in the catch of the week, vying with the kings and weaks.

Among the large fish caught during the week, Mr. Walker caught two weaks weighing 4 1/2 and 2 1/2 lbs.; Leon Fair, two, 3 1/2 and 2 1/2 lbs.; Frank Jacobs, two, 8 and 10 lbs.; Nes Irvine, two, 7 and 5 lbs. Leon Fair also got a 5 lb. striped bass.
